Independent Information Research

As an independent information researcher in California, I produce books and short, entertaining lessons on frequently overlooked facts about skillset and talent. Edit a multicultural blog for aspirin www.nichecreativityecom. And as an author, I offer virtual services to selected reading groups, such as self-help, women's and social issues topics.

Niche Creativity curates educational information, digital and print resource training materials for career seekers obtaining insights on artistic and entrepreneurial career paths as well as virtual consulting to educators working in secondary and post-secondary education.

Writing credits include...Teachers.Net Gazette,

Cover article for California Job Journal
2 Articles for Simply Hired Blog
3 Books and supplemental lessons on Amazon and Teachers Pay Teachers.

Last year, two of my Kindle titles landed on Amazon's top 100 best-sellers list
