

Q & A Niche Humor

Q. What's the funniest story you have come across?

A. Oh, there are a couple of them. The one that makes me laugh easily is an incident involving wildlife expert Jim Fowler.

I was watching CNN one afternoon several years ago and happened to glance down at the bottom of the television screen and as the news anchor read her copy, several other unrelated stories scrolled across the bottom of the screen.

One story read that Jim Fowler had gone to the airport carrying two flamingos in cages and as he attempted to go through the airport, but Fowler and the flamingos got wedged in a turnstile...

The copy not only conjured up a funny picture but I didn't expect to see that story along with breaking news from around the world.

Reference

<http://www.wildkingdom.com/about>