

Q&A Historical African American Entrepreneurs

Good Information Sources

Q. With the close of Black history month, can you recommend a book that documents historical minority entrepreneurs, besides those repeatedly mentioned every year?

A. For a good book on the subject, check out Entrepreneurship and Self-Help Among Black Americans by Professor John Sibley. A lot of people know little about many, many, many other historical entrepreneurs. For instance, have you ever heard of A. G Gaston of Alabama, born in 1892?

References

A.G. Gaston

Washington University film and media archive

<http://tinyurl.com/cw9tqsj>

Amazon: Entrepreneurship and Self-Help Among Black Americans

<http://tinyurl.com/cn2xqtv>

