

Update: Blog and Book Revision

Murphy's Law and Gravity

Since May 9, I have been on restricted physical activity after trip and fall involving a heavy package and my two left feet. ..

So the newly revised edition of MusicBiz Notes will be uploaded in June.

And Finding Your Niche 2016 has been rescheduled for September.

New blog content will be added June 26.
New mission statement and progress update next week.

Thanks for your patience.
