

Videos for Potential Entrepreneurs: Q&A

Beyond Youtube

Q: Do you have a video that you would recommend?

A: Canadian entrepreneur Cameron Herold covers a lot of subject matter in an entertaining irreverent fast-paced talk entitled Let's Raise Kids to Be Entrepreneurs.

It's a TED video from 2010. Other sources you can investigate include

Prendismo.com's subscription service, which starts at $20 for six months. Or the Stanford University collection.
